Miss Whitley County Scholarship Program

Behavior Contract

As a Miss Whitley County Scholarship Program participant, I agree that all statements below concerning my behavior are true and agree to the following guidelines for my conduct before during and after the Scholarship Program:

1. With this title, I am representing myself, my county, and the scholarship program. I agree to maintain a positive and respectful social media platform (Facebook, Instagram, Snapchat, TikTok, etc.) during my reign. My online presence is subject to the same rules as what is expected during fair week. (Please capture the memories of the fair week but be respectful to the 4-H members, family and volunteers, by keeping your phone usage to a minimum while in the show arena.)

2. I agree to represent Whitley County with the highest moral character and certify that I have not been arrested or convicted of any felonies and shall not and have not engaged in any illegal, immoral, unpartisan, unethical, and/or morally questionable behavior; ie: use of illegal drugs, alcohol if under the age of 21, appearance in nudity/pornographic films or print media, etc) Such conduct will result in disqualification and/or revocation of title and prize(s) and/or scholarships.

3. I understand that my behavior while participating in the Miss Whitley County Scholarship Program and, if chosen as queen, title holder or court, also behavior at the State Fair, is a reflection of Whitley County, my family, my school and myself. I will act accordingly as a good role model and upstanding citizen.

4. I will not defame the Scholarship Program, the Whitley County 4-H Fair and community, the program director and/or committee, and/or any of the scholarship program participants, and/or any Whitley County queens, past or present, through any action of my own, whether it be oral, written or otherwise stated before, during or after the Scholarship Program. Defamation of the above named will result in automatic relinquishment of my title, and/or dismissal of from the program. I understand if I defame any of the above named in any way, I will be banned from future Miss Whitley County Scholarship Program participation.

5. Dress Code:

There must be no visible cleavage or midriffs.

Must have closed toed shoes while in the large animal show arena; open toe is allowed in the small animal arena.

No see-through apparel or fishnet garments are permitted.

No clothing that advertises, promotes, or glorifies the use of alcohol, drugs, tobacco, or other illegal substances in permitted.

No mini skirts.

If you are a member of 4-H or any other organization that participates at the 4-H fair or other community events, you are not permitted to wear any other royalty pieces or apparel unless approved by Jessica, if you plan to also represent the Miss Whitley County Scholarship Program in any capacity.

No PDA of any kind while at the fair, or in any capacity where you are personally representing the scholarship program.

The director and any other member of the program committee will speak to any/all contestant/representatives, while representing the program, if they feel the apparel does not meet the previously stated requirements.

6. I will not physically harm or attempt to harm and Whitley County Scholarship Program participant, director, or committee member; before, during or after the pageant.

7. As a part of the queen's court / little miss court - you MUST attend all day, everyday during the fair, unless previously discusses with Jessica. You may not leave early or arrive late unless there is an emergency or unless previously discussed with Jessica or another on the queen committee.

8. Please keep all cell phone usage/texting to a minimum while in the show ring or at larger events.

9. The scholarship program director and committee expect each participant to display the highest degree of sportsmanship during the workshops, meetings, rehearsals, pageant, parades and during the fair. Each participant should be mindful that they are representing themselves, their family, their school, Whitley County and the Scholarship Program. Unsportsmanlike conduct could result in disqualification and affect any future eligibility to compete in the Scholarship Program in the future. Any participant and/or family member or guess showing unsportsmanlike behavior will lead to the disqualification of the participant.

I have read the Behavior Contract set down by the Program Committee and agree to abide by all requests. I understand that falsifying an agreement to the statements, terms and conditions set forth by the Behavior Contract is justification for the immediate disqualification and that the decision of the Program Director and Committee is final. This constitutes the entire agreement of the parties and is legally binding.

A parent's signature is required if participant is under 18 on the date of signing.
